

Telling the Civil Rights Movement Through Song

Special Thanks to Jonathan Blanchard
& his band for Performing
for the Trousdale County
Afterschool Academy
In April

Arts Integration

The “Freedom Songs” of the Civil Rights Movement were used as a tool that integrated music, literature, social studies, math, and reading comprehension. This program helped to make this time in our country’s growth “come alive” for our students.

Sponsored by a Grant from the Tennessee Arts Commission
401 Charlotte Avenue
Nashville, TN 37243

